

Baby, I'm Gone Again

Words by SHELL SILVERSTEIN

Music by BOB GIBSON

Moderately

1. The liv - in' is eas - y on Eas - y Street, My bed is warm, my wom - an is sweet. But then I hear those freight train wheels a - click-in' a - gain, Then this heart in - side me starts to quick - en a - gain, This rest - less foot of mine it starts in kick - in' a - gain, So I grab my hat and ba - by I'm gone a - gain.

To last ending on 4th Verse

2. The days are warm, the nights are cool,
If I leave this place, I'd be a fool.
But then I feel that chilly wind a-blowin' again,
Leaves are fallin', soon it's gonna be snowin' again,
Something callin', tellin' me I gotta be goin' again,
So I'll pack my bag and baby, I'm gone again.
3. It feels so good to hold you near,
I tell myself I'm happy here.
But then I hear that trav'lin' music playin' again,
And all those bills I paid will soon need payin' again,
The tick tock clock says time for me to be strayin' again,
So I'll grab my hat and baby, I'm gone again.
4. Been sleepin' deep in a feather bed,
I'm over loved and overfed.
But then I hear those far off voices singin' again
Some ramblin' tune my banjo soon 'll be ringin' again,
So babe, don't cry when I say goodbye,
I'm off and swingin' again, Gonna

Last ending

grab my hat and ba - by, I'm gone, Pack my bag and ba - by, I'm gone, C'mon kiss me quick 'cause ba - by, I'm in the wind.