

JOHN RILEY

By BOB GIBSON
RICKY NEFF

Lively, flowing

Dm G Dm

1. Fair young maid — all in a —
3. "What if he's — in some bat-tle
(5.) if he's found — an - oth - er —

Dm G Dm

gar - den, Strange young man, pass - er - by,
slain, Or drowned in the deep salt sea?
love, And he and his love both mar-ried be;

F C

— Said "Fair maid, — will you mar - ry — me?" This — What if he's — found an - oth - er — love, And — I wish them — health — and hap - pi - ness Where

Gm Dm

then, — sir, — was her re - ply. 2. "Oh
he and his love, — both mar - ried be?" 4. — they — dwell — a - cross the sea." 6. He © Copyright 1961 & 1966 by HARVARD MUSIC INC. and SANGA MUSIC INC., New York, N. Y.

Copyright controlled by Ivan Mogull Associates, London, England for the world excluding U.S.A. and Canada

International Copyright Secured

All Rights Reserved

G Dm

no, kind sir, — I can - not mar - ry thee, — For I've a love —
 "If he's in — bat - tle — slain, — I will die — picked her up — all in — his — arms, — And kiss - es gave —

G Dm F

— who sails on the seas, — He's — been gone —
 when the moon doth wane; — If — he's drowned — her one, two, — three, — Say - ing, "Weep no more —

C Gm

— for — sev - en — years, — Still no man — shall mar - ry
 — in the deep salt — sea, — I'll be true — to his mem - o -
 — my — own true — love, — I am your — lost — John Ri -

Dm

me," ry.
 ley."

1. 2. 3.

5. "And