LEAVING FOR THE LAST TIME

2. I don't know where we lost it
I don't know where the love went
Or where the hope was all spent
And the sweetness turned to pain
We cried and cried our grieving
We sighed and sighed our needing
And played a losing game
When not a chance remains that
We might hope to find our way

3. I'm leaving as the wind blows
Don't watch me from your window
Don't try to shackle me with Eyes and sighs of might have been
Your tears won't work no longer
Tomorrow's call is stronger
Wrong or right I know your need has Cost me much more than I could
Ever hope to pay
