

SING US SOME OF THE OLD SONGS

BOB GIBSON,
BY SHEL SILVERSTEIN &
HAMILTON CAMP

REFRAIN

play us some of the old songs like you used to play. Go on, sing us some of the old songs and roll the years a-way — There's lots of old and friendly faces I see walk-in' in, say-in' sing us some of the old songs and make us young a-gain 1.2. D.S. 13. VERSE 1/2 EM 1. Two hours late from A-bi-lene climb-in' on the stage. Hail the conquer-ing he-ro on the Tri-bunes' se-cond page. He had brand new songs to sing 'em and some heav-y things to say, when a voice called from a ta-ble 'bout fif-teen years a-way — Said,

Jimmy's stackin' chairs Gus is countin' up the take I'm stumblin' up the stairs
With a slightly over thirty waitress some of the fenas knew I said, " Let me tell you, baby,
About the changes I been through."
