

There Is A Woman

(TELLIN' ALL THEM LIES ON ME)

Words and Music by SHEL SILVERSTEIN and BOB GIBSON

1. There Is A Wo-man, she's liv-in' right here in—this here town— she keeps on ly-in',— lay-in' them lies— on—me. It's a sin and a shame the way she drags my name all a-round She keeps on ly-in',— lay-in' them lies up-on me. Oh,— she says I'm wick-ed and wild —
Oh, oh, oh, I'm pure as a new-born child —
Oh,— why can't ev-'ry-bod-y see — That she's on-ly ly-in'— ly-in' those lies a-bout me.

2. She tells everybody I got triffin' ways
Yeh, she keeps on lyin', lyin' them lies on me
So don't you believe a single word that woman says
'Cause she's only lyin', layin' them lies on me.
Oh, I ain't done nothin' to her
Oh, oh, oh, oh, oh, I ain't said nothin' to her
So why can't everybody see
That she's only lyin', layin' them lies upon me.
3. I'm gonna get the bailiff to go and get her and bring her down
If she don't quit tellin', tellin' them lies upon me.
There's gotta be a law about the way she's draggin' my name all around,
Gotta quit lyin', signifyin' 'bout me.
4. There is a woman, she's livin' right here in this here town,
She keeps on lyin', layin' them lies on me.
It's a sin and a shame the way she drags my name all around,
She keeps on lyin', layin' them lies upon me.
