

A WAYFARING STRANGER

New words and arr. by Bob Gibson

Brightly

The musical score is written on a single staff in treble clef with a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The melody is simple and uses mostly quarter and half notes. Chords are indicated by letters above the staff: Em, Am, G, C, B7, and A. The lyrics are written below the staff, with some words underlined. The piece ends with a double bar line.

I am a poor way-far-ing stran-ger, I'm tra-vel-in' through this world of woe. And there's no sick-ness, no toil or dan-ger in that bright land to which I go. I'm go-ing there to see my broth-er, I'm go-ing fa-ther, moth-er there no more to roam, I'm go-ing there just o-ver Jor-dan, I'm go-ing there to my new home.
